BEST REAL ESTATE AGENT/TEAM

Judging by various online consumer review forums and enthusiastic testimonials, it's clear why this longtime Burbank real estate company is so popular that it has won Burbank Leader's "Best of Burbank" for three years in a row. Whether clients are buyers or sellers, Korb and his hand-picked, mentored team of experts caters to their needs with intensely focused customer service from start to finish. Many clients have made Korb their "permanent" realtor and constantly refer him to friends and family.

Korb, who has lived in Burbank since he was a teen in the mid-1970s, has earned an exceptional reputation for trustworthiness in business dealings as well as his deep knowledge of Burbank's wide diversity of real estate and unique market dynamics. Even more impressive is his involvement over the decades with the many civic and neighborhood organizations and causes that help make Burbank so special. Many Burbank locals appreciate the fact that in the same way Korb goes above and beyond to serve his clients, he does the same in his support of the Burbank community. To all who helped the Brad Korb Team again win "Best of Burbank," Korb says: "Thank you. We are truly honored." ■

A Valuable Asset Protection Resource for our Friends and Neighbors

An up-to-date estate plan is vitally important — which is why we are so glad that we can confidently recommend Joe and Kathy McHugh as an excellent resource for making sure your estate plan is in good order. The McHughs have been good friends with the Brad Korb family since the early 1990s, when their children were six years old and playmates while the McHughs and Korbs were in the YMCA Guides program together.

Joe McHugh, founder and principal of LA Law Center, PC (la-lawcenter.com) in Glendale, is well regarded as a caring, experienced attorney with an excellent reputation for representing clients in Asset Protection, Estate planning (Wills and Trusts), Elder Law (Medi-Cal and Veterans Benefits qualifications), Conservatorships, and Trust and Probate Administration. Kathy McHugh is a Certified Senior Advisor, working in the law firm as Triage Director. Together, they specialize in helping seniors protect their assets so they can qualify for long-term care needs. For a free consultation in estate planning or senior care issues, call the McHughs at (818) 241-4238 and tell them Brad sent you! ■

The Burbank YMCA – Always Here for Our Community

Part of the YMCA's charitable mission is to unlock people's potential, in order to improve lives and create a more connected society. Forming part of a community or special group can improve personal well-being, build relationships, and provide an outlet to discover purpose. The foundation of the Burbank YMCA is community. Known simply around the Burbank Y as "the Aquatics Ladies", this group of charismatic women, with ages ranging from 46 to 103, are the total embodiment of community at the Y. We had a chance to catch up with the leader of this dynamic group, Shari Brandon, who at the age of 74 has rightfully been nicknamed "The Youngster".

After a terrible car accident in 1994, Shari was told she would never be able to walk again. She knew she had two choices in front of her - "I could give up or give it everything I've got!"

Shari chose the latter. Raised on a Wisconsin dairy farm, Shari was no stranger to hard work, so she was more than up for the challenge that awaited her. Over the next two years, Shari would go on to make amazing progress. As she began taking steps towards moving her health forward, every step, however, came with extreme pain. Shari realized that she needed to find a way to relieve the stress on her lower body.

In 1996, a trainer recommended that she try using the Burbank Y's warm-water pool for physical therapy. From the moment she touched the water, Shari was hooked. Suddenly, things that she had been told she would never be able to do, were now possible. Within four years, Shari went from being a

The Importance of Wealth Management in a Dynamic World

How is wealth like real estate? For one thing, wealth doesn't manage itself. It requires professional services. In a family or business, wealth has its own set of asset and liability needs. For his long-term management, Brad Korb relies on Richard V. Bertain and David Escobar of UBS Financial Services, recommending them with confidence. Korb says these dedicated Certified Financial Planner™ practitioners consistently use premiere customer service and extensive financial resource knowledge for planning and putting in motion long-term goals and objectives.

Bertain, Senior Vice President with UBS Financial Services, has been providing sound financial advice to clients since 1983, earning designation as Certified Investment Management Analyst from the Wharton School. He and Escobar, First Vice President with UBS, are involved in Burbank community organizations ranging from the Burbank Civitan Club and Boy Scouts of America, to the Burbank YMCA and Leadership Burbank.

Bertain and Escobar's Comprehensive Wealth Management approach for high net worth families and businesses is straightforward and thorough: Identify goals, evaluate the situation, develop a financial plan, implement it, and monitor and rebalance as needed. They seek "to perform effectively and efficiently, such that each of our clients would be proud to recommend us to their family and friends."

Burbank Temporary Aid Center Updates

BTAC GOFUND ME PAGE

Utilities are critical to every aspect of our lives. Hot water, lights, power for cooking, heating and air conditioning. Without them, we really can't function. If someone can't pay their utility bills, the next step is trouble paying rent, ... and then comes eviction and homelessness. Imagine how this would feel if you were a parent with children. Burbank Temporary Aid Center (BTAC) is dedicated to helping prevent homelessness in the City of Burbank. Please help us "keep the lights on" for local families who are struggling to make ends meet! Today!

Help us raise funds to help with utility bills. If you feel you can support this effort, please go to the link provided above to contribute. Even the smallest donations makes a big difference!

<https://www.gofundme.com/btackeepthelightson?pc=&rcid=r01-1503681218-662e7dc43694498b>

FUNDRAISERS WILL CHANGE SOMEONES LIVES

A great way to help is by gathering your friends, family, colleagues to conduct a food drive or organize a fun, fundraising activity. During these summer months, people often forget that BTAC still needs help providing services. Funds you raise could help pay someone's power bill or rent, to help them stay off the streets while they are getting back on their feet.

All deliveries should be made at the rear of the building, M-F from 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., except for holidays. For questions about food drives, contact estapleton@theBTAC.org. For fundraising questions, contact bhowell@theBTAC.org.

BTAC Donation Policy

BTAC can accept only monetary and food donations. If you have questions, please call BTAC at 818/848-2822. All non-cash donations are accepted at the rear of the building.

BTAC's SCHEDULE

Homeless Services: On Monday and Friday BTAC will strictly be focusing on Homeless services. Services for those who are housed: Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday BTAC will focus on preventing homelessness. BTAC's hours for services will continue to be M-F 9:00 a.m. – noon and 1:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. BTAC's food pantry closes each day at 11:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

BTAC is more than just Food

Many people aren't aware that your monetary donations to BTAC support BTAC's Bill Assistance program. Whether helping with a BWP or Gas Co. bill, subsidizing rent or assisting with transportation – just to name a few, these donations help some of our friends and neighbors to keep from becoming homeless.

IMPACT STORY

This month BTAC's Housing Case Management helped prepare homeless clients with disabilities in applying for the City of Burbank's Permanent Supportive Housing Program.

The current clients struggle with the demands of tracking down documents with little resources they have. These individuals couldn't track down documents for transportation, a fire in a mobile home, getting robbed etc. Thanks to BTAC, many clients have found a way to submit the documents via technological advancements like email and fax. During the next month, we hope to house some of these individuals.

BTAC Needs Volunteers!

BTAC has numerous opportunities for volunteers. Whether you are looking for an ongoing volunteer experience or would like a team building experience for your office, service organization or family, we hope you will consider BTAC as the place you want to volunteer. Contact awestfall@thebtac.org for more information.

daily pool user to one of the Y's most sought after aquatics instructors. As Shari began instructing aquatics courses, she quickly began to realize her capacity for providing emotional support for others.

Over time, a community of women began to come together. Like Shari, each of them had their own unique story and reason for why they ended up in the Burbank Y pool, but whether they were looking for it or not, "the community we've formed outside of the pool is what keeps us coming back" explained Shari. After a morning of water aerobics or water volleyball, you can find this joyful group of women enjoying breakfast and visiting at one of Burbank's many great restaurants. Every person who joins one of Shari's classes is added to her personal roster that lists their contact info and birthday. Once a month, the group gathers at Lancers for dinner to celebrate everyone who had a birthday that month. But it's not all play with these ladies, as they are each responsible for taking turns baking a birthday cake for the rest of the group!

This kind of emotional support and sense of belonging is very important to healthy aging. Shari explained how "the group feeds off each other. When one person is down the other picks them up." Many in the group consider one another family, as they lean on each other to continue to live a fun, fulfilling life. This sense of family is what many say has differentiated the Burbank Y from other gyms and fitness centers. When you dive into an aquatics fitness class at the Y as an individual, you leave with an entire community behind you.

As we closed our conversation with Shari, she left us with three pieces of advice to lead a great life: 1) Laugh every day and don't take yourself too seriously, 2) Only live for today, as you don't know if you have a tomorrow, and 3) Open the door for the next person and help each other along the way. Upon thanking Shari for her time, she had one last vital piece of advice that she wanted to make sure to pass on – "Don't look back, because that's not where you're going. Keep moving forward!"

The Burbank Y offers a fantastic variety of programs and wonderful instructors geared to meet the health needs of the senior population. As an added bonus, we provide a sense of belonging and support that is unmatched. Don't believe us? Come by the Y and ask Shari and the Aquatics Ladies. Join the Y family; your community is waiting for you. For more information regarding our Aquatics programs, please contact Jennifer Cervantes at 818-845-8551 ext. 284 or jennifer@burbankymca.org ■

Thank you, Brad! You and your team made this a good move for me. I could not have had any better service than from every member of your team. I had been referred to your office and I will definitely send you all of my referrals!

As out of town sellers, we had to rely on Brad to keep us updated on what was happening with our property. Brad handled all the little details such as repairs, painting, and cleaning the property and always kept us updated with negotiations. The transaction coordinator was very professional and attentive.

The escrow officer was excellent and escrow closed faster than expected which was a nice relief. In this market, Brad was able to find a qualified buyer and put together a smooth deal!

Burbank Tournament of Roses Association

By Robert Hutt

I hope this month's report reaches you in time to remind you of our upcoming Craft Faire & Open House Fundraiser! The big day is Saturday, October 7, beginning at 11 AM! Get an early start on your holiday shopping with unique jewelry, candles, a variety of hand-crafted items and much more! We depend on your support to close the gap between our annual grant money and the actual cost of building Burbank's Rose Parade float. The Craft Faire is our biggest fundraiser of the year so please help us to make it really count!

Prior to the Craft Faire, on that same Saturday morning, at 7 AM, Burbank's float will undergo its first road test "T1," for the Tournament's mechanical inspectors. They will be checking the suitability of the driver and observer compartments, which must be "substantially completed." The edges of the float should be defined and the inspectors will be watching for maneuverability issues as we travel down Flower St to Verdugo Ave where we will do a three-point turn in the intersection. After returning to our construction site, the chassis will be parked outside the Barn (to give the Craft Faire folks some room) and members of the Construction Team will be available to show off their handiwork and answer visitor's questions.

The Construction Team has spent most of the summer building the separate pieces of the float. After T1 is finished, we need to put things together and get the characters built! The sea otter, floating on his inner tube, will be rocked by the same mechanism that makes the water wave action. The heron and pelican will each need a mechanism to rotate their heads. The octopus will use several hydraulic cylinders in the tentacles that have complicated movements and at least one cylinder for simple movements. His rotating head will probably use another cylinder. The flying bird atop the tall castle tower will use a hydraulic motor. Each hydraulic cylinder or motor needs two hoses to carry the high-pressure fluid to drive the movements. That's a lot of plumbing!

On the Decoration side, we are continuing to process dried materials. Teams of cutters are working on several different colors of dried statice as well as bunches of dried marigolds. Several members of the Deco Committee recently went on a field trip to Castaic Lake to collect drift wood. The wood will be used on some of the roof tops in the castle and as accent pieces on the "Sand-Sational Helpers" title sign and on the "City of Burbank" signs.

Interested? We can use your help! Our regular work schedule is Wednesdays and Saturdays between 10:00 AM and 4:00 PM and Sundays from noon to 6:00 PM. The construction site is located at 123 W. Olive Ave. (Please park in the Metro Link lot.) Questions?? Call the Barn at 818-840-0060 or visit our website at: www.BurbankRoseFloat.com! Check out our Facebook page, too! ■

Who Doesn't Love BOB'S BIG BOY?!

Once Upon a Time, there was a tiny little burger shack in Glendale that cooked up some darn good food. The owner was a man by the name of Bob Wian; the year was 1936.

Every day, a chubby little boy came by the joint and ordered a burger. Owner Wian would smile as he saw the plump little boy walk up, and Wian would call out to him, “Hi there, Big Boy!” This became a habit and after a while, Bob (the owner) decided to name the beloved burger in honor of its daily consumer. So he named the hamburger, The Big Boy. Since Bob Wian cooked it, Bob decided to call his place “Bob’s Big Boy.”

And now you know The Rest of the Story!

That Glendale location is long gone, but we bet you know the infamous Bob’s Big Boy on Riverside Drive. It’s a historical landmark, built in the late 1940s and known for its one-time drive-up feature and waitresses on roller skates, as well as all its famous patrons and especially its Friday night “car shows.” Come any Friday night and check out all the beautiful vintage cars and their owners! Jay Leno is a regular.

Here at the Burbank Historical Society/Gordon R. Howard Museum, we have a Bob’s Big Boy statue of our own (makes for a great photograph!) and all kinds of old Bob’s Big Boy memorabilia. Thirty-five cents, you say? Well, sure – doesn’t every big, delicious hamburger cost that?! Did we make you hungry?!

McCrorry's Estate Sales by Connor 'Liberates' Clients from Stressful Process

Inheriting a home from a loved one usually means inheriting the furniture, artwork, clothing, jewelry, tools, and other valuables inside, too. Brad Korb has decades of experience helping clients sell inherited real estate at its best value, but first the home must be made move-in ready by removing its contents. To help his clients accomplish that to their best financial advantage, Korb recommends Stephen and Aime McCrorry, owners of Estate Sales by Connor.

"Stephen and Aime's family-run company has built a large, loyal following in Southern California among appraisal specialists, collectors, and reputable antique dealers," Korb says. "The McCrorrys are ethical and extremely professional. They handle every aspect of an estate sale from start to finish, with the goal of getting as much value as possible for clients."

Stephen McCrorry enjoys working with Korb "because when Brad is involved, it's always a smooth transaction," he says. "What we like best about what we do is seeing people liberated from the stress and worry of trying to evaluate, sort, and sell all those items at an emotional time. Many of the items have sentimental value, and some things have value that clients might not realize without our expertise. Our service helps make the whole process much easier."

For more information, visit www.EstateSalesByConnor.com or call Stephen McCrorry at (310) 228-0943. ■

Brad Korb says 'Thank You' to Police and Fire Departments in Burbank, L.A., Glendale

During the La Tuna Canyon fire — one of the largest in Los Angeles history, burning more than 7,000 acres and requiring the evacuation of more than 700 people — Brad Korb, on stand-by evacuation alert, watched from his home as water-carrying helicopters flew overhead all night long and dozens of firemen and policemen kept a close eye on Burbank's neighborhoods.

"It was amazing how Burbank Police, the City of L.A. and Glendale worked so tirelessly through the night, coordinating with firemen and heavy equipment to save homes. They also had police on streets below to keep looky-loos out and help protect property in evacuated areas," Korb says. "They did such a spectacular job keeping us all safe. I want to extend a big, personal thank you to all of them." ■

Burbank Woman Calls Brad to Help Reveal the Real Ulysses S. Grant

Some people called him a butcher and a drunk. Others called him a ruthless warrior. But longtime Burbank resident Patricia Cameron, a two-time Emmy-award-winner and writer of children's TV shows (Little Mermaid, Smurfs, Beetlejuice, Free Willy, etc.), is determined to change the legacy of Ulysses S. Grant to recall the whole man: kind and deeply romantic, with passion that "burned right off the page" in more than 300 love letters to his wife, Julia.

Cameron, who's lived in Burbank since 1978, is probably the world's foremost living expert on Grant's love letters. She has gotten special permission seven times to peruse the originals, and nearly knows them by heart. Yes, the Commanding General of the U.S. Army at the end of the Civil War was a hard-nosed military tactician. Americans saw and still think of the nation's 18th president as the tough, brutal, sometimes cold man he was on the battlefield. The actual story revealed in his letters is so dramatically different that Cameron can't believe a motion picture documentary hasn't yet been made based around the prolific letters home.

So with the support of her husband, their son, and the family savings, she's tackled the job herself with a dramatized video documentary titled "The Love Letters of Ulysses S. Grant." Its first phase was filmed on location in Grant Cottage, "starring" Grant's actual great-great-great-great granddaughter. Now Cameron has permission for the next phase, filming at Madison Barracks where Grant and his beloved Julia lived as newlyweds.

"Several years ago, I saw Brad Korb had a transportation van, and it said if you need help with anything, call me. So I did," Cameron explains. Korb is pleased to use the Burbank Bulletin to help Cameron reach out to the Burbank business community and any other interested folks to help fund the next phase's $36,000 budget for filming at Madison Barracks.

Agent Profile:

Naira Ambar, Thrilled to be on Brad Korb's Team

Almost 25 years ago, Naira Ambar and her family came to Southern California as refugees from what is known now as the Russian Federation. She was eight-and-a-half years old. Like many refugee families, hers arrived with little money, yet through hard work upgraded from renting a tiny apartment in Van Nuys, to a succession of bigger, better places. Eventually, the family could afford to buy a condo in North Hollywood and later, a townhouse.

"I grew up living all over the Valley," says Ambar, a Buyer Specialist on the Brad Korb Team. "Maybe living in so many different homes is why I've always liked real estate. My parents dabbled successfully in investment properties, too, which also sparked an interest. But I never thought I'd become a full-time realtor, let alone love it so much."

Ambar enjoys the "emotional connection with clients and getting goosebumps when I help them find the right home. You can't get that in any other profession," she says. Another reason she likes her work is because she is part of the Brad Korb Team.

"He says to always go above and beyond. He taught me that I don't have to try to attract the widest spectrum of clients, that it's okay to just be myself because then I'll get the kinds of clients I want and will connect with best," Ambar explains.

She has exciting dreams for the future: "I've been living in Arcadia for awhile and gotten to know and love the area. Ten years from now, I want to have branched out in the San Gabriel Valley under Brad Korb's umbrella," she says. "We provide service that's beyond exceptional. I think it would be great to extend the Korb Team's reach." ■
