Turkey Time for BTAC from Brad Korb

The way Brad Korb sees it, Thanksgiving and Giving Back go hand-in-hand. There are so many things for Korb and his team to be thankful for. Fulfilling a family Thanksgiving tradition of many years, Brad, Nancy, Courtney Korb and the Brad Korb Real Estate Group delivered about 1,200 pounds of turkeys on November 13 to the Burbank Temporary Aid Center, which Korb says is one of the community organizations that makes him so proud to be part of Burbank.

"I've been a real estate agent here for over forty years. All along, BTAC has been steadily helping the community and bringing families together," Korb said. "I am thankful that my family and team can help this great organization assist folks in need. We hope to continue for many years to come."

Burbank Coordinating Council's Holiday Basket Program

Burbank Coordinating Council has been serving Burbank since 1933 and Holiday Basket Program provides food and gifts to low income, at risk and homeless family members in our community. What began as one meal and one gift per person has grown into a lot more. We try to bring nearly a week's food, and gift(s) to all family members to remind them they are not forgotten and to bridge the gap in food provided by school meal programs, not available during school break. 2400 people were helped last year!

Nearly 500 families receive help annually, through the donations of time and funds from churches, schools, service clubs, businesses, city offices and individuals and families. There are many ways to participate, and a donor form available at www.burbankcoordinatingcouncil.org. The website also provides a way to donate directly through paypal. Questions can be related to ccholidaybaskets@aol.com, and text or phoned to 818-216-9377.

The Annual Spirit of Giving Luncheon to fundraise for Holiday Baskets was a wonderful event held at First Presbyterian Church on Friday, Nov. 8th. Emcee Vice Mayor Sharon Springer was a gracious host to all. Honorees were Charlene Tabet from Burbank School Board and National Charity League, who have been supporters of Holiday Baskets for many years. Thanks to all who attended, participated, and sponsored the event, to help assure the 2019 program success.

Food drive is citywide on Dec. 7th, and bagging food, Wed. Dec.11th, set up at Burbank High School Friday Dec.13th, and finally delivery on Sat..December 14th make it a busy week for all and many volunteers are needed. December 14th is delivery day, and the whole community is invited to come to the parking garage at Burbank High School from 7am to 4pm, and help deliver around town! Look for the Brad Korb van along with many other vehicles! Service learning hours are offered to teens to make it more of a win win project.

It is priceless to see the looks of gratitude and wonder when packages are received. Children laugh and clap for joy and many adults cry tears of gladness. It is an amazing way to celebrate the season! Donors receive the joy in sharing while they assist our local families.....come be a part of this project and sign up today! ■

The Importance of Wealth Management in a Dynamic World

How is wealth like real estate? For one thing, wealth doesn't manage itself. It requires professional services. In a family or business, wealth has its own set of asset and liability needs. For his long-term management, Brad Korb relies on Richard V. Bertain and David Escobar of UBS Financial Services, recommending them with confidence. Korb says these dedicated Certified Financial Planner™ practitioners consistently use premiere customer service and extensive financial resource knowledge for planning and putting in motion long-term goals and objectives.

Bertain, Senior Vice President with UBS Financial Services, has been providing sound financial advice to clients since 1983, earning designation as Certified Investment Management Analyst from the Wharton School. He and Escobar, First Vice President with UBS, are involved in Burbank community organizations ranging from the Burbank Civitan Club and Boy Scouts of America, to the Burbank YMCA and Leadership Burbank.

Bertain and Escobar's Comprehensive Wealth Management approach for high net worth families and businesses is straightforward and thorough: Identify goals, evaluate the situation, develop a financial plan, implement it, and monitor and rebalance as needed. They seek "to perform effectively and efficiently, such that each of our clients would be proud to recommend us to their family and friends."

2019 and Beyond... Critical Planning for Long Term Care in California!

Joseph McHugh is the founder and managing attorney at LA Law Center specialized in elder law, asset protection and estate planning (wills, Trusts and Probate). Kathy McHugh (his wife) is the Triage Director & Certified Senior Advisor that helps clients with Medi-CAL qualifications and recovery issues. Together with their staff, they can help you understand your options in doing long term care planning and basically "Getting Your Affairs in Order"! Their biggest passion at this time is educating people about their legal rights to transfer and protect their assets in case they need Medi-Cal in the future.

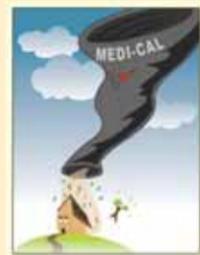

the rules and exemptions made for families to qualify for Medi-Cal. Under the rules in California, applicants are permitted to transfer assets out of their name during the look-back period without incurring a penalty (time where applicant will not get Medi-CAL benefits). Less fortunately, these rules are often confusing and difficult to implement without the expertise of an experienced Elder Law Attorney. Most traditional Estate Planning Attorneys do not understand this area of law.

Most professionals assume you cannot gift assets & must spend money on medical needs. This is not true, and has resulted in impoverishing a well spouse, and spending down needed assets that were not necessary!

Soon California will fall in line with the Federal Medicaid laws, so California will get more money from federal government to pay Medi-CAL disbursements...this means the rules will change and they will be much stricter! But if you do gifting now, it will be grandfathered in! The current laws are specific, and you really need an elder law firm to guide you through this process to ensure you create the least amount of penalties for Medi-CAL qualifications.

For example, in 2019, we can protect a house from Medi-CAL estate recovery... when the new Federal Laws come into California there will be a limit to how much equity can be in the house to be moved... it is expected to be no more than $750,000 of equity. This is problem in California as starter houses are around $600,000. It is critical you understand your options if you may be facing care needs in next 5 years!!

Joe and Kathy offer free phone or office consultations and can tell you your options before it is too late! Call 818.241.4238. ■

No one ever wants to be in a nursing home, but unless you can pay $25 an hour for in-home care ($18,000 a month for 24/7 care) you should do pre-planning JUST IN CASE!! Today many people want to stay in their home (typically paid off), but do not have enough money or income to do that if they need assistance with their activities of daily living or medical care. The Medi-Cal laws are changing soon. SO...we are standing on the rooftop screaming to anyone that will listen...

"IF YOU MAY NEED MEDI-CAL LONG TERM CARE BENEFITS IN THE NEXT 5 YEARS...CALL LA LAW CENTER TODAY!"

Today, until the Medi-CAL (Medicaid) laws change we can save almost 100% of all assets by moving them into a Medi-CAL Asset Protection Irrevocable Trust, but we are expecting to be limited to being able to save 50% or less when new law come in (expected to be adopted in California within next 18 months). If you think someone in your family is at risk of needing long term care in the next 5 years, it is critical that you totally understand how an ill person's estate can be moved and be able to qualify for Medi-CAL if it becomes the only way this person can afford to be cared for 24/7.

How to Minimize Capital Gains Taxes: Korb Talks 'Owner-Will-Carry'

A bit like the experienced boat skipper who navigates deep water to find the best fishing for his passengers, a good realtor plots a course for the best financing arrangement to minimize capital gains taxes for his sellers.

"We call it 'owner-will-carry,' or 'seller financing,'" Brad Korb explained. "I recently was talking to a client who wanted to sell his property but didn't want to pay such high capital gains. He wasn't aware of the tax deferral he could get if he carried the loan on the property once he sold it."

According to Korb, an example would be of a buyer who put 25% down on the property, with the structure being that the seller take back the loan and carry a note secured by the property, just as a bank would do. The capital gains taxes would be calculated on the money received rather than full purchase price.

"The seller also gets a much better return interest rate than he would from putting his money in a bank," Korb added. "I can help the seller when minimizing capital gains is an issue. It's the job of a good agent to help clients through territory that is new to them, but familiar ground to us."

Korb invites anyone who wants to know more about owner-will-carry structuring to call him at (818) 953-5300.

When you sell a piece of property with owner financing, it is considered an installment sale instead of a regular sale of real estate for tax purposes. For example, when you sell a house or a piece of land normally, the seller gives you a lump sum of money for the purchase on the closing date. With an installment sale, the buyer gives you a down payment on the closing date and then gives you regular payments over the life of the contract.

Spread Out the Gain

When you sell with owner financing and report it as an installment sale, it allows you to realize the gain over several years. Instead of paying taxes on the capital gains all in that first year, you pay a much smaller amount as you receive the income. This allows you to spread out the tax hit over many years. When you sell a property that has appreciated significantly in value, it could require you to pay a large amount of capital gains taxes. ■

The Brad Korb Real Estate Group and Once Upon a Christmas Celebration

The Brad Korb Real Estate Group is the title business sponsor of the Once Upon a Christmas celebration that takes place annually at Kids Community Clinic in Burbank. Each year, volunteers create a holiday party for vulnerable individuals and economically fragile families within the community.

Local organizations and individual persons, too many to mention, help families and individuals in crisis. Those served include homeless and displaced children and youth. This event brings joy, love, and a distraction from the complexities of many in difficult circumstances. Every child receives a delicious meal, a present, fun-and-games, entertainment, and a photo with Santa.

Santa's elves include many service clubs, groups, and friends of the cause who share concerns for those who should not be without, during the holidays.

The key partners for the Once Upon a Christmas celebration include: Kathy Ireland Worldwide®, Kids' Community Dental Clinic, Burbank Family Services, Family Promise of the Verdugos, Burbank Coordinating Council, National Charity League, Inc., Burbank Chapter, and Dreams to Reality Foundation®.

National Charity League, Inc., Burbank

Chapter, president Robyn Ellis will serve as the event's mistress of ceremonies.

Every year, The Brad Korb Real Estate Group extends both volunteer and substantial financial support for the gathering.

This year's Once Upon a Christmas celebration takes place at Kids' Community Dental Clinic, 400 West Elmwood Avenue, Burbank, California 91506, on Thursday, December 19, 2019, from 4pm to 6pm. 300 children and parents are invited to take part in the festivities, any organization wishing to be included for this year's event may contact Dale Gorman, the Executive Director of Kids' Community Dental Clinic, at (818) 841-8010. ### SHE FOUGHT THE LAW... AND SHE WON!

By Susie Hodgson

She's definitely not what she seems. She seems so sweet, so mild, so calm and compassionate. She has the kindest eyes, the softest smile, the most unconditional loving disposition... But like I said, she ain't what she seems.

Her name is Olivia de Havilland and she was the one who took on one of Hollywood's meanest bosses ever, Jack Warner, and won.

Born into privilege in 1916, Olivia and her also-famous little sister Joan Fontaine started life out in Tokyo where their father worked both as a professor and attorney. Eventually their mother wanted to go back home to England to raise her daughters, but the ship stopped at San Francisco where both little girls got sick. Mom decided then to raise her daughters in California. Always a philanderer, Dad took the opportunity to fly back to Tokyo and run off with his Japanese maid.

In school, Olivia excelled in the arts. Little sister Joan – who was only 15 months younger than “Livvie” – did too and you'd think they would be best friends, thick as thieves. They had so much in common. Once again, you'd be wrong. Things aren't always what they seem. Olivia and Joan hated each other always. Both would later become actresses. Both would later become Oscar winners. And both would despise the other till her dying day.

Meanwhile, back to young Olivia. She discovered acting as a teen and liked it – a lot.

When her stepfather found out she was offered a lead role in the school play of a Jane Austen novel, he lost it. We're talking “Pride and Prejudice” here, not “Debbie Does Dallas”! Still he issued her an ultimatum. You either act and leave home or you can stay here. Guess what the doe-eyed, creamy-complected, warm honey-voiced Olivia did? You got it – she walked, never to return.

Soon she got an understudy part in “A Midsummer's Night's Dream” which was to play at the enchanting Hollywood Bowl. Hollywood! Just like in the movies (think “42nd Street”) the lead actress dropped out (that would be Gloria Stuart who decades later played the older Rose in James Cameron's “Titanic”) and guess who made the big time! The understudy! Soft-spoken Olivia, of course. That's when Warner Brothers stepped in and wanted to make the play into a film. Olivia was one of the stars. (Mickey Rooney played Puck!) The film was not a hit, but Olivia was and her career took off.

In 1935 she made “Captain Blood,” a Warner Brothers film co-starring a bit player who had some... charisma, shall we say? It was Errol Flynn and the chemistry between them was palpable. Now THAT was a pairing. Olivia went on to make the highly acclaimed “Anthony Adverse,” and then reunited with Errol Flynn on “The Charge of the Light Brigade.” It was then that Warner Brothers offered her a 7-year contract at $500 a week. Big money! The quiet, big-eyed, seemingly bashful 20-year-old girl accepted. And in 1937 she made more screen magic with her hot, handsome co-star Errol Flynn in “Robin Hood.” “Robin Hood” was nominated for several Oscars and the public went crazy over the obvious lust between sweet Olivia and bad boy Errol.

And it really was lust. Both have since admitted it, although whether that lust was ever consummated or not is unclear. Errol said sure it was. Olivia said she couldn't do it – he was married. Again, Olivia played the good girl. But was she? During the filming of one of their love stories while Errol's wife Lili Damita was on-set, Olivia “messed up” several takes in her and Errol's love scene. They had to kiss and re-kiss at least eight times. Mmmm.

1939 is considered by most Hollywood experts as the finest year in movie-making ever. For Olivia, that meant playing the infamous part of Melanie in “Gone With the Wind” – a part the adorable little Olivia fought like a bobcat to get. In December of 1939, the epic film made its premiere in Atlanta, GA. The Governor declared the day a holiday. Lines circled the city blocks of people trying to get in. But one person who later won the Academy Award for her role in the movie was not allowed to attend – Hattie McDaniel -- because she was African-American. Clark Gable declared if she can't go, he won't go. But Hattie made Clark go. Empathetic, open-minded-seeming Olivia didn't seem to have any problem with it.

After “Gone with the Wind,” Olivia assumed that many a meaty part would come her way. But they didn't. Olivia complained that Jack only saw her as an ingénue, not a gifted dramatic artist. So she rejected the light, goo-goo eyed roles. Many times. And Jack suspended her. Many times. This would become the crux of Olivia's legal action against the untouchable (seeming) Jack Warner.

In 1943, Olivia's 7-year contract with Warners was up. But Jack Warner tacked on an additional six months to her contract, which infuriated her – and you do NOT want to infuriate the soft, loving-seeming Olivia. She sued. And won. This landmark decision was hailed as if slavery were abolished. It was a huge case and to this day, it is still called the deHavilland Law.

Hollywood didn't come calling after that (what a surprise) but the War started and Olivia put in an enormous amount of work helping on USO tours, chipping in at the Hollywood canteen, selling war bonds and more. She also married a man named Marcus Goodrich who had published one novel (“Delilah”) and she had a son. Sadly that son would contract Hodgkins lymphoma at age 19 and die of complications at 42. The marriage to Goodrich also died years earlier and Olivia moved to Paris. There she married the Editor of Paris March and had a daughter. But that marriage also fizzled. Meanwhile, Olivia wrote a bestselling book about life in Paris (“Every Frenchman has One”).

At some point, Olivia returned to the silver screen and even won two Oscars for “The Snake Pit” and “The Heiress.” In 1964, she had a smash hit with the movie “Hush Hush, Sweet Charlotte.” Eventually she made some appearances on television, including a part on “Roots.”

Olivia de Havilland definitely seems sweet and timid. Yet she had a torrid affair with John Huston (funny thing, he was married...), lusted after Errol Flynn and dated Howard Hughes and Jimmy Stewart. She beat the Hollywood “indentured servant” system and she lives on today – literally. Every actor in Hollywood knows it – and so do her neighbors in France.

Your ad in the paper was welcoming and honest. I am very pleased with the sale of my property. Thank you for your assistance!

I spoke with several realtors who all told me they couldn't sell my property. Then you came along and figured out a way to sell my home so I could buy a new home. You went out on a limb for me and bent over backward to close the deal. I appreciate your efforts very much. If not for you, I wouldn't have my family in our new house!

Burbank Tournament of Roses Association

By Robert Hutt

It's December when the months of work on construction and decoration projects will finally come together to produce a spectacular Rose Parade float for Burbank! Parade day is just a month away and our labor of love is really looking like a float. The pod has been painted in colors that will closely match the final floral materials. The various elements have been screened, cocooned and perhaps even painted. But with all the manufactured flowers, there are still many loose ends that need to be finished off!

Yes, we can use your help! We have been scheduling volunteer groups for weekend time slots who want to help create Burbank's 2020 Rose Parade float entry: Rise Up. Parents, your high-school aged kids can use our help to earn service hours for graduation. Church groups, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, civic groups, are welcome. We are currently working every day except Sundays and Mondays at the float Barn between 10:00 AM and 4:00 PM. If your group is smaller than eight people, don't worry about scheduling, just drop by the Barn and we'll put you to work.

We have received many requests from out of state visitors to help decorate Burbank's Rose Parade float during Deco Week (Dec 26 thru 31). Unfortunately, we don't take reservations for that week; it's all first-come, first-served. However, some advice from years of experience: plan to come later in the afternoons. Our front door is usually super-crowded at 10 AM but by 3 PM many people have begun to drift away. During Deco Week, we will be working until 10 PM and later!

Before we can accept volunteers, an Emergency Contact form must be completed. For minors, it must be signed by a parent or guardian. You can save time by downloading the form from our website: www.BurbankRoseFloat.com and filling it out before you come to volunteer at the Barn. The Barn is located at 123 W. Olive Ave. (under the Olive Ave. overpass). Please park in the Metro Link lot.

Our next big milestone is Saturday, December 14 at 7:00 AM. We are scheduled for our second test drive (T2) for parade officials from Pasadena. In preparation for the test, we will assemble everything and install it to make the float be as complete as possible. During the test, all crew members will be at their stations inside the float. As we go for a trip down Flower Street, we will demonstrate our phoenix rising up from the ashes. She will soar to her full height of nearly 30 feet and spread her wings! Real flames will shoot skyward from her majestic tail plumes! Our waterfall and mist effects will be operating. Sometime during the test drive, a fire drill will be performed where all crew members must exit the float, bringing their fire extinguishers, within 45 seconds.

Note: We will not be accepting new volunteers on December 31st. Our final judging is that day, at about 2:20 PM, activity is very hectic, and there is no time to train newbies. Later that day, at about 7:00 PM, we will be ready to depart for Pasadena. Come to the float Barn and wish us well! ■

McCroy's Estate Sales by Connor 'Liberates' Clients from Stressful Process

Inheriting a home from a loved one usually means inheriting the furniture, artwork, clothing, jewelry, tools, and other valuables inside, too. Brad Korb has decades of experience helping clients sell inherited real estate at its best value, but first the home must be made move-in ready by removing its contents. To help his clients accomplish that to their best financial advantage, Korb recommends Stephen and Aime McCroy, owners of Estate Sales by Connor.

"Stephen and Aime's family-run company has built a large, loyal following in Southern California among appraisal specialists, collectors, and reputable antique dealers," Korb says. "The McCroys are ethical and extremely professional. They handle every aspect of an estate sale from start to finish, with the goal of getting as much value as possible for clients."

Stephen McCroy enjoys working with Korb "because when Brad is involved, it's always a smooth transaction," he says. "What we like best about what we do is seeing people liberated from the stress and worry of trying to evaluate, sort, and sell all those items at an emotional time. Many of the items have sentimental value, and some things have value that clients might not realize without our expertise. Our service helps make the whole process much easier."

For more information, visit www.EstateSalesByConnor.com or call Stephen McCroy at 818-848-3278. ■
